Deed made May 4th, 1880, by Wm. Stewart to Mary A. Parrill, wile of J. T. Parrill, for lot No. 31, on North Main street, for $300.

"The littlesteamer Phaeton, Capt. Dillon is the very fastest boat on the Upper Ohio river. Capt. Dillon says, "The Diurnal captain can beat me boasting, but I 'tell you, young man, I can beat him running, and if we come together I propose to carry off those deer horns.' An INTELLIGENCER man came up from Bellaire the other day on this little flyer, and thinks the Captain was not exaggerating. The Telegram, which runs in the same trade as the Phaeton, stands no chance in the frequent contests of speed between the two."

Capt. Baoth says his crew has subscribed $1,000 to put up on the Diurnal sgainst the Phaeton, and he wants Capt. Dillon to "put up or shut up." This is the Phaeton's chance to show that she really can make good her Captain's words. The Diurnal will run her a race at her own course and distance, and if she beats she can have the $1,000, and also the fine pair of antlers carried by Capt. Booth's boat. We hope the race may be made, and if it is, "may we be there to Bee." INSTALLATION.—At the regular meeting of Enterprise Lodge No. 22, I. O. G. PROF. EDDY'S MATINEE.-It is perhaps a matter more for sorrow than surprise that Mary Anderson or John McCullough, with the tickets at a dollar and a half or a dolthe tickets at a dollar and a half or a dollar and a quarter, should never fail to fill the Wheeling Opera House to overflowing, while Remenyl and Frof. Eddy, at popular prices, attract only a handful of listeners. Yet in another view of it it is fortunate for those who do appreciate the classical and artistic in music that so few attended the entertainments referred to, for in a mixed audience the pleasure of appreciative hearers is marred by the lack of sympathy on the part of those around them. C. C. Dewry, Samuel Laughlin and H. K. List, who were elected directors of the Young Ment's Association of Wheeling, have declined to act, as they have not the time to give it that attention its importance demands, "although heartily in favor of its objects."

of sympany of them.

Prof. Eddy is undoubledly one of the foremost living organists. There may be those who are his equals, or even his superiors, but certainly no one has ever played in Wheeling who even approached him in beauty of conception or skill of execution. The music rendered at the matinee was all very fine, the only faults tion. The music rendered at the matinee yesterday was all very fine, the only faults noticeable being in the organ. The audience, though small, was discriminating, and though seeming to enjoy the entire programme, showed especial delight at the fifth number of the programme, ("Elevation" in E, by Saint Saens,) a compound performance near the end of the entertainment, composed of selections from Lemmens and Tours, and the contrapuntal portion of Rheinberger's "Pastoral Sonata." These appealed more directly to the heart, being, especially the second named, compositions of pure and ravishing melody.

Mrs. Sheib sang the "Inflammatus," from Rossini's "Stabat Mater," and an Aria by Reach actiful "Mr Heart Ever Faithful."

PHILIP KGHILES, a type on the Forsi-blatt, discovered two men attempting to burglarize the residence of Dietrich Roe-mer, 134 Fourteenth street, last night, and attempted to get near them, but they fled at his approach. He gave notice at Police headquarters, and a thorough search of the neighborhood was made, but without success. Mrs. Sheib sang the "Inflammatus," from Rossini's "Stabut Mater," and an Aria by Bach, entitled "My Heart Ever Faithful," in a manner to win enthusiastic applause. Taken in all, the concert, in spite of the lack of appreciation by our citizens, must be considered a memorable musical event.

The University Jubiles Concerts,—On Friday and Saturday evenings of this week at the Opera House, may be numbered among the rare and recherche entertainments with which Wheeling is visited. The Fisk singers must not be ponfounded with any company of jubilee singers, or colored songsters that have ever visited Wheeling or vicinity. Those which have been here, the Tennesseeans and Old Virginia Centennial singers, have not pretended to be the original Fisk University Singers, but honestly acknowledged they were not, and also that the Fisk company are not equaled in the world. For a number of years one of our ministers has been trying to secure for Wheeling's citizens, the unprecedented privilege and pleasure of hearing this company of singers, in whose presence Kings and Princes have stood, in awe and wonder, and at whose wonderful rendering musical cities have been astonished and said, as the London Baily Telegraph:

"The hushed attention, and the fre-THE UNIVERSITY JUBILEE CONCERTS,

Through intimacy with General Clinton

A large number was present and a delightful evening was passed. Some very difficult gymnastic feats were performed upon racks and bars; and also in club swinging. The pinno playing of Misses Emma and Lotta Schullz, Miunie Burdatts and Mary Schambra was very fine, and also the playing of Mesers. Hern, Schambra and Oscar Burdatts. After the entertainment the floor was cleared and dancing indulged in until a late hour.

THEATRE COMIQUE.—The programme at the Academy of Music will be changed throughout to-night, and in addition to the regular performances an interesting amateur entertainment will be given. Geo. W. Weisgerber, the oarsman, and Jeff Miller, will contest for a prize at club swinging; Harvey Frazier and Samuel W. Davis will give some funny Dutch business; George Stein and J. M. Gasner will dance clogs, and Bide and Allie Leach will appear in double song and dance, beside performing some banjo solos. W. DeCamp, Jim Parker, Charlie Bliss and Jacob Boes are also announced in a "quartet act." The following are the prizes: Stem-winding watch to the best club swinger; silver castor to the best quartet; silver butter dish to the best dancer. The manager also promises a cash prize to the boy who eats an apple dumpling the quickest. The professional talent which appears this week is above the average. The sparring match between a man and woman is interesting, the high-kickers are immense, Dilks and Wade are irresistible, and the closing pantomime is an artistic affair. artistic affair.

Election.—The stockholders of the new Nail City Glass Company held a meeting last night, when the following Board of Di-rectors was elected: Hugh Sterling, H. W. McLure, Alfred Paull, W. F. Harris and George Mathewa. These directors elected the following officers: President, H. Ster-ling; Secretary, Alfred Paull.
